

Making Life Choices

On the road below, there are places where you can make choices about how you would deal with problems. After you make a choice, follow the road to see how it would change your life. Keep going until you can reach your dreams and do all the things that you want to do.

